Dear Phil:

Enclosed is a letter from Mr. Duane D. Pearsall who has expressed an interest in being considered for the position of Administrator of the Small Business Administration.

I would appreciate it if you would give his application the full and thorough consideration it deserves, particularly in view of his background and experience.

Obviously, with the number of qualified individuals seeking such positions, your efforts in screening out those individuals who could do the best possible job for the Administration will be difficult, and I appreciate not only your efforts, but the work of the entire committee.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,

Ken Kramer
